

TRIUMPHAL FIRST ANNIVERSARY FESTIVAL

AT THE GLOBE—an occasion excelling again all past efforts and attempts—a week of reunion and rejoicing for all the friends and patrons of this unique and enterprising establishment. Everybody near and far is invited to this banquet of values—this feast of offerings in Men's and Boys' Apparel—this jubilee that out-distances all the mercantile events in history. This festival celebrates the victory gained through alertness, intrepidity, and liberality.

It is neither a clearance sale or a reduction sale. There has never been, nor will there ever be, a reduction sale at The Globe. All goods, whether of medium grade or finest, are offered at such popular prices that the tremendous volume of business diminishes the stock daily. No wares remain on hand long enough to be reduced. New and up-to-the-moment goods are added every day. This is equally the case in all departments—Men's and Boys'—Clothing, Shoes, Furnishings, and Hats.

At 9 A. M. To-Morrow, Saturday, With the Booming of Brass Cannon From the Roof, the Doors of The Globe Will Open for This Triumphal First Anniversary Festival, Celebrating Without Music, Flowers, or Souvenirs, But With Marvellous Values, the Natal Day of the People's Popular Store. The Conditions and Duration of This Festival Sale Will Be Absolutely as Advertised Upon This Page.
